Dear Mr. de Bobula:

There is no principle of law or equity on which a Government obligation could be premised in situations outlined by your letter of 15 January and prior correspondence. As we have stated to you before, this is a personal matter between yourself and [REDACTED] in which the Agency cannot and will not interfere. As there is no obligation, no consideration can be given to the payment of Government funds in the amount claimed by you or in any amount in connection with this matter.

STATINTL

I sympathize with your position, but the Agency is unable to take any further action.

Yours very truly,

LAWRENCE R. HOUSTON
General Counsel
